TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is a letter of recommendation concerning Mr. Filippo Cammelli. Mr. Cammelli is an excellent bright young lawyer. He graduated cum laude at the University of Bologna and the excellency of his curriculum placed him among the top ranking students. He later became an associate in Studio Bernini, our Family Law Firm now merged with Baker & McKenzie. He performed very satisfactorily all tasks entrusted to him.

Mr. Cammelli is very thorough in his work, combining the theoretical preparation with an attitude towards the solution of practical problems. His scope of cultural interest is wide and varied and he is gifted with a keen sense of duty. Mr. Cammelli is open to easy contacts with other people and shows a marked inclination for team-work and collective research.

BOLOGNA

His favorite field of endeavor includes antitrust law and commercial law at large. To these subjects he has devoted considerable time at both academic and professional levels, showing determination and professional competence. In addition to the above fields of interest Mr. Cammelli is successfully engaged in the general practice of law.

Yours sincerely,

Professor Giorgio Bernini,

LL.M., S.J.D., University of Michigan Law School; Formerly Full Professor of Arbitration and International Commercial Law, University of Bologna; Honorary President, International Council for Commercial Arbitration (I.C.C.A.); President, Association for the Teaching and Study of Arbitration and International Commercial Law (A.I.S.A.)
